EUROPEAN INTRODUCTION

SIX OBERHOLTZER EMIGRANTS FROM WALD, SWITZERLAND

There are several places in the district of Wald which the Oberholtzer families lived. But the original homestead was in the town of Oberholz; it is also called the Upper House typically by the Alemanni families.

The Upper House families stayed Catholic (at least till the 20th Century). The valley families became Protestant. The younger generation moved to the "unter" (or Lower) House. This was at the Aa (meaning Spring) in the valley. As time progressed, a village grew up on the lower side of the Aa, and it became Aathal. The town of Wald is north, down the thal or valley from Aathal.

The family of Oberholz worshiped in the Catholic Church of Eschenbach, on the west side of the ridge. Some church records still exist. This changed when there were enough people to build the Chapel in Oberholz.

Some moved to Goldingen, remaining Catholic; with its first chapel in 1667. And some moved to St Gallenkappel, both toward Lake Zürich. Some of the Catholic Oberholzer family moved to Uznach, at the pass along the southern end of Lake Zürich.

Marcus has custody of Samuel's remaining three children, and bequeaths his estate to them in his will of 1759. He died in 1760.

PROPOSED ASSUMPTION: The Schneider name comes from the Abraham Herr family, and is a new listing in the LMHS card file. Jacob Eby's will also has a witness on his will as Peter Schneider Sr.. Assuming this is correct, through the process of elimination, mathematically [SL] Samuel 1727's wife Elizabeth can be the only remaining person available to carry the surname of Frick. Since Jacob Frick is specifically called "Uncle" in one of the sale deeds of the property, one of the Elizabeths must be a Frick. Uncle and Grand Uncle were not differentiated in legal documents of the time.

Also, there were two Jacob Fricks living in Manheim Township at the time. It is not completely established which Jacob Frick the will is referring. Both Jacob Fricks, and rifle maker Christian Oberholtzer lived as neighbors, complicating the matter but also bringing to light the close knit ties of the four families.

IMMIGRATION INTRODUCTION:

1710 IMMIGRANT OBERHOLTZERS TO LANCASTER COUNTY

Over the past 80 years, many people have tried to find who and when Oberholtzer descendants of the Oberholtzer homestead in Aa, Wald, Canton of Zurich Switzerland, came to Pennsylvania. This vast amount of information has led to many hypothetical assumptions. It has come to a point where it almost cannot be discerned what information is correct, and what needs to be corrected. I will attempt to make definitive answers by showing what is written in the original documents.

It should be noted that only now, since Barbara B Ford has compiled The Oberholtzer Book, can a person go back to the piles of information and properly assemble what took place in the early years of the 18th Century. Barbara has done us all a huge favor by properly organizing the families, so that individual pieces of earlier information can now be added without misconceptions creating confusion.

In the British Museum there is a list of "all" poor Germans who came over from the Palatinate and taken in St Catherines May 6th 1709. On the list was Mark Overholtzer, husbandman, about 45, wife, sons aged about 10, 8, and 3, and daughters aged 6, and 1. They were labeled "Baptists".

[MC] Marcus Oberholtzer c1664 EUR - Dec 3, 1726 Coventry Twp, Chester Co

1st Party to leave Rotterdam; Arrived 1709 in England from Rotterdam at age 45, with wife & 5 children.

Immigrated ~~1710~~ Mary Hope 1712 - Rupp's 1844

m Elizabeth Ely

Lived in Coventry Twp, Chester Co PA

The couple were settled by Thomas Fairman, a surveyor for William Penn, on 300 acres of the 500 acres previously held by Peter Bezalion, a fur-trader protegy of Richard Logan, secretary of the colony. The land and a house built in 1700, were on the west bank of the Schuylkill River in present East Coventry Twp, south of Pottstown PA.

In The Oberholtzer Book, Barbara Ford states that the immigrant date of 1710 was based on circumstantial evidence. The following reveals multiple evidences.

In the PA Archives, 1932 Strassburger Vol 3, p 545, and Vol 39 #4 of the Lancaster County Historical Society, and Lancaster Co PA, Swiss German Settlers 1709-1730, Rupp's 30,000 Names pg 436, and the Loomis Manuscript, there is agreement on the following immigrants:

1. [JF] Jacob Oberholtzer immigrant to Philadelphia Feb 22, 1702
2. [MM] Martin Overholts immigrant to Conestoga settlement in 1709 [1710]
3. [ML] Michael Oberholtzer immigrant to Conestoga settlement in 1709 [1710]
4. [MC] Marcus Oberholts immigrant to Bucks Co PA in 1712
5. John Oberholtzer immigrant died on ship Friendship Oct 14, 1727, 4 ch unaccounted
6. [SL] Samuel Oberholtzer immigrant ship Molly Sept 30, 1727
7. [HJ] Hans Jacob Overholtz immigrant ship Alexander and Ann on Sept 5, 1730
- 8/9 [JL] Jacob and son Samuel and daughter Elizabeth immigrants Aug 12, 1732
- 10.[?HW]Henry Overholts immigrant Feb 7, 1738/9 on ship Jamaica Galley
11. John Michael Oberholtzer immigrant 1749
12. Hans George Oberholtzer immigrant Oct 22, 1754 on ship Halifax
13. Peter and brother Overholser (Loomis text pg 414)

The above information [without parenthesis] is correct and confirmed, except that of the 1709 dates.

Before those of Bern had fully executed their project, they were induced to fly for safety, to London, in the vicinity of which, they pitched their tents, and were supported at the public expense until they could be shipped off for America - some sailed for New York, Pennsylvania, and others for North Carolina, where they arrived in December 1709 at the confluence of the Neuse and Trent. - History of Lancaster County 1844 In the footnote is also states:

Colonel Robert Hunter, appointed Governor of New York, arrived at that province June 14, 1710, brought with him 3,000 Palatines, who, in the previous year, had fled to England from the rage of persecution in Germany. Many of whom settled in the city of New York; others in Germantown, Livingston Manor, Columbia County, and others in [Penn's Woods]. - Smith's New York, I. 123

How do we know that some of the first settlement immigrants came to Lancaster County in 1709?

The following statement is taken from Benjamin Eby's Geschichten der Mennoniten, pg 151:

Im Jahr 1709, kamen etliche familien von der Pfalz weche von den vertriebenen Schweizern abstammten und liessen sich nieder in Lancaster County.

Jacob Miller was listed with the first group to be in the Conestoga settlement, along with Hans Herr and Martin Kendig. When arriving in Conestoga, they searched the land and made verbal agreements as to who wanted what. This probably took a few weeks. After that, "a council of the whole society was called; at which their venerable minister and pastor Hans Herr, presided, and after fraternal and free interchange of sentiment, much consternation and serious reflection, lots in conformity to the custom of the Mennonites, were cast, to decide who should return to Europe for the families left behind and others. The lot fell upon Hans Herr, who had left five sons. This decision was agreeable to his own mind; but to his friends and charge, it was unacceptable... Their sorrows were alleviated by a proposal made on the part of Martin Kendig to take Hans Herr's place, which was assented by all."

Without much delay, Martin Kendig went to Philadelphia, and there embarked for Europe. After a prosperous voyage of 5 or 6 weeks, he reached the home of his friends. Having spent some time in preliminary arrangements, he and a company of Swiss and some Germans bade a lasting adieu to their old homes. Martin Kendig with his company of the residue of some of those in America, and of Peter Yordea, Jacob Miller, Hans Tschantz, Henry Funk, John Houser, John Bachman, Jacob Weber, and others, he returned to the new home. These two paragraphs come from the historical book of 1844, The History of Lancaster County, Rupp's.

The implications are that a small group came to America in 1709, went to the future settlement to inspect and choose their properties prior to bringing their families. Martin Kendig then returned to Europe with the "residue of some of those in America", and prepared to bring the sons of Hans Herr, and the remaining families of the first settlement still in London.

In the archives of Amsterdam there is a letter of thanks from some of the first settlers, which includes: "But of our journey we report that we were detained almost ten weeks before we were put on board ship; but then we actually entered into the ship on the 24th, were well lodged and well cared for, and we have been informed we will set sail from here next Saturday or Sunday from Gravesend, and wait there for the Russian convoy..." this letter is signed London the 24th of June, 1710 by Jacob Miller, Martin Oberholtzer, Martin Maily, Christian Herr, Hans Herr, and Martin Kendig.

"Three accounts of the passage to America exist: two in the Mennonite Research Journal of October 1960, and one by Baron von Graffenried. They were protected from the French fleet by Russian escorts to the north of Scotland and had collisions and storms, but a safe passage, arriving September 23, 1710.

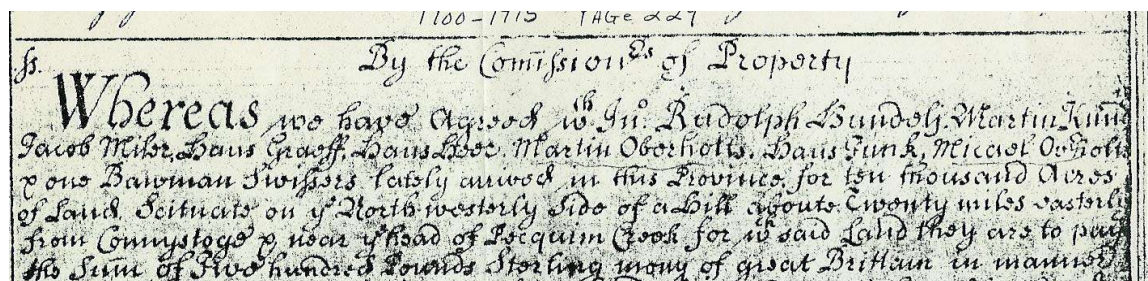

Here it shows Martin Oberholtzer was one of the signers of the June 24, 1710 letter of thanks to the Dutch from London. A letter written by William Penn to the English Minister to the Netherlands gave them passage through Holland. They were then in England ready to sail in a few days to America. They took passage on the "Mary Hope" of which John Annis was master. It sailed from London on Friday June 29, 1710 with ninety-four passengers on board, and arrived at Philadelphia in September 1710.

The arrival of the immigrants to Philadelphia took place 17 days prior to the issue of the land warrant for the Conestoga settlement, at Noon on September 23rd 1710. - John L Overholt, Kilmarnock VA, July 23, 1984; Diary of Samuel Guldin of Rocksbury PA, found by William J Hinke in the Berne Archives 1897, published twice.

The diary states: "There we stayed until the 27th, when a Christian friend ... secured a good house for us 8 miles from the city [Philadelphia] among good friends, which he has given us for the winter or as long as we need it.... The place is called Rocksburg..." - The conclusion of this diary no doubt proves Samuel Guldin was one of the immigrants. Barbara Ford notes that the house [actual picture reveals a cave with a slanted door] was that of Johannes Kelpius 1673-1708, leader of the Pietists from Germany. John Selig 26 yrs old in 1694 - 1745, and Conrad Matthias lived as a recluse in a rude hut until his death in 1748.

Guldin also says Selig lived for nine years in the house prior to "our" coming.

The pioneers to the first settlement were Hans Meylin & sons Martin (the first gunsmith is Lancaster County) and John, Rev Hans Herr, Jacob Miller, Martin Oberholtzer (who is to be discussed later), Hans Funk, [ML]Michael Oberholtzer (which in one document is written as Martin Michael Oberholtzer), Wendell Bowman, and others....

The group of pioneers procured a warrant for the 10,000 acres of land on the North side of the Pequea Creek on October 10, 1710; the warrant was recorded and the land surveyed on the 23rd of October 1710. It begins:

"Whereas we have agreed ____ Rudolph Bundoli, Martin Kundig, Jacob Milor, Hans Graoff, Hans Herr, Martin Oberholts, Hans Funk, Miccol Overholts, sons Bowman Swisssers lately arrived in this province for the ten thousand acres of land."
- Philadelphia County Warrant Book 1700-1715, pg 229

On January 22, 1711, Jacob Miller's wife gave birth to the first child born in the Conestoga Swiss Colony, a son named Samuel Miller. Jacob Miller was born in Europe 1663, and died April 20, 1739.

If the party of immigrants only first came to America in 1710, Jacob Miller and his wife would not have been able to have a child in January 1711, for they were in the second group of immigrants to the first settlement. Also, the Herr signers of the letter to Amsterdam evidently were Hans Herr's sons Christian and Hans (i.e. John) Herr. Rev Hans Herr had stayed in America as spiritual support for those who remained over the winter. This small group most likely returned to Germantown for the winter to await the families and their belongings, which would arrive on September 23rd in the year 1710.

On the 27th of April 1711 the Surveyor General, at the request of the first purchasers, subdivided the said 10,000 acres "into so many parts as they had previously agreed upon."

ML Martin Oberholtzer was on the 1710 warrant for 10,000 acres in Pequea, now Lancaster County, but was not on the 1711 survey, was on 10/21/1718 Talyor. Martin purchased 200 acres by the Conestoga Creek, southeast of Millersville, from Alexander Benes. On 5/14/1733 Martin was deceased and his two sons Jacob and Martin Jr sold the land to Michael Kryter.

Peter Bezalion was the only licensed Indian trader, according to an act passed at a general Assembly October 14, 1700, held at New Castle in the present state of Delaware. In 1714, Peter Bezalion received a land warrant from the commissioners of property to allow Peter to seat himself at Paxtang.

CONCLUSION:

Some of the misconceptions by earlier family tree hunters have "I believe that Michael was Marcus", Martin Oberholtzer was ML Martin Oberholtzer, and that Marcus was Martin Oberholtzer. Now we can definitively state that the 1710 Michael Oberholtzer is ML Martin Oberholtzer, and Marcus Overholt came to Chester County in 1712, then to Bucks County, but never came to Lancaster County. Thus it is time to turn our attention to the name Martin Oberholtzer of the Conestoga Land Warrant.

MM Matthew Oberholtzer

A suggested family line, by Dennis L Oberholtzer 2010

The surnames Oberholtzer, Oberholtz, Overholt, Oberhold, O'Bold, Obold, Opold, Obolt, Obol, and Abold are all the same family.

We know a Martin Oberholtzer was named on the first land warrant for Lancaster County at Conestoga. I wish to insert a statement by Michael Ports of Baltimore Maryland: "The custom of the Germans in those days was for the man to go by his middle name. The first name was seldom, if ever, used after the christening. Hence, the origin of the term Christian name." Now this may be a bit of an overstatement. Still, now that we know ML is actually Martin Michael Oberholtzer, and the only other O descendant known to have come over was Matthew. Therefore, until someone can find evidence to the contrary, I propose that Martin Oberholtzer from the 1710 Land Warrant is one and the same as Martin Matthew Oberholtzer. I list him as MM1.

"The naturalization procedure, both complex and expensive during most of the 17th & 18th centuries, was eased for a three-year period between 1709 and 1712."

- Barbara L. Weir, Menn. Naturalization, Chester County Archives & Records Services, 1989

MM Matheus Oberholtzer c1636 EUR - In England 1709

1 of 6 sons who emigrated from Wald in 1657 & 1663

Matheus is not listed in the usual list of children, but there supposedly were at least two more. He is listed as one of four brothers as emigrants from Frankfort-on-the-Rhine to England, according to Cheryl Wise.

When I showed this suggested family to Tom Myers to critique, he reminded me that Matthew would not likely have come over here, being around the age of 70 years. There were some elderly Swiss - Germans that did come over, some died on the way over here. But I must agree with Tom, that since the evidence is so scant, and that the Matthew Oberholtzer family were likely squatters in Conestoga Manor, it is more likely he did not make the trip, choosing to stay in England till his passing.

MM1 Martin Matthew Oberholtzer [also spelled Obold] aft c1670 - aft 1735 bought land, sold 1755

David Hall found a Matheus Obold which in land records was also Oberholtzer or Overholt.

- John L. Overholt, Kilmarnock, VA, Aug 2, 1982

Said to have had a wife by the name of Elizabeth, but this was incorrect information, as the Elizabeth referred too was actually SL2 Martin Oberholtzer's wife Elizabeth.

The administrator for Matthias was Lodowick Colls (Polls).

The land owned by Matthew was sold in 1755. He would have been in his early 80's, both he and his wife likely passed away. This land is on the Warrant map as 181 acres to Henry Neff.

REF: Lancaster County Land Deed Records

Martin Matthew Oberholtzer was listed on the first settlement land warrant as Martin Oberholtzer. He is not found as buying land with the original settlement, but the Indians did complain of "squatters" living north of Indian Town, which would have been Conestoga Manor where son Matthew bought land after 1735.

1721 "The settlements about the Indian villages of Conestoga were considerably advanced in improvements at this time...." - Rupp's p 135 Here we have evidence that several families lived "about", especially north in Conestoga Manor, before Matthew Oberholtzer bought the Messerswrights land. It is known that SL Samuel Oberholtzer was a squatter in his first few years at present day Millersville. It is very likely Matthew was also.

After 12/13/1735 the Messerswrights sold land in Conestoga Manor to Matthew Oberholtzer. We know this Matthew was not ML Martin Oberholtzer or any of his descendants, for no Matthew is found in his family, not in his will or his descendants.

5/7th part of 200 acres in Conestoga Manor where sold by Jacob & Addy Moyre of Lancaster County for 300 Lbs. The names on this Deed D253 are: Children of Christian Stoneman deceased, _____ Oberholtz, George Kendricks, as granted in D235 to Jacob Moyre. Dated Jan 13, 1755 Henrich Neff, W38 J21 June 25, 1755

We now know that this Oberholtzer was not any of SL Samuel Oberholtzer's family. Nor was it any of ML Martin Oberholtzer's family, who now lived in Lebanon Twp (present Lebanon County). Nor was it any of JL Jacob of Brecknock's family. The only other Oberholtzers in Lancaster County in the first half of the 18th Century were Matthew Oberholtzer in Conestoga Manor, and a Henry Owerwasser in Elizabeth Twp. None of these other O families were connected to George Kendricks. The Kendricks surname is found in HJ Hans Jacob of Hatfield, Montgomery Co PA. But Matthew Oberholtzer (and I believe the child CH Christian Oberholtzer) were the only unaccounted O's in Manor Twp prior to 1755.

On the Manor Township Assessments, 1751, Wolrick Rode (Ulrich Rudy) tax collector, there were two O families being assessed. One was Martin Overholser @ 7 s. 6d. There is no doubt that this is SL Samuel's son.

The other was CH Christian Oberholser @ 9 s. This could not be SL Samuel's grandson Christian, for he was not born until 1753, and never owned land in Manor Township. But Matthew Oberholtzer bought land after 1735 in Conestoga Manor, Manor Twp. Matthew must have died, or was invalid by 1951. His son, which is evidently CH Christian Oberholtzer worked the land until he went out on his own living in Hempfield Twp by 1758.

[MC172] Frederick Overholt was a tanner who lived in Bedminster Twp for a short time during the Revolution and had a family of ten.

- ppH2, p21, 16 Bucks Co Genealogical Society, by John L Overholt, Kilmarnock VA 6/12/1984

Dear Dorothy Ehrhardt, June 2, 1990, Your letter was most interesting and I find that the Overholt name was used sometimes for your Atherholts which certainly confuses research. I have the following Rev War record for Frederick Overholt of Bedminster Twp, Bucks Co PA. Penna. Archives: Ser. 5, Vol 5 p 373-378 Frederick Overholt Ovt. 2C1, McHenry's 4 Batt. Bedminster; Ser. 3 Vol 6 p 86 Frederick Overholt Capt McHenry's Co, CIF 1781; and Ser. 3 Vol 6 p 90 Frederick Overholt EF 1782. - Barbara B Ford

There was an article in the Penna. Mennonite Heritage by John L Overholt (I helped with some of the research) and he had written up Marcus Oberholtzer whose two sons lived in Bedminster Twp. At the end of his article he had - ?A72 Frederick Overholt: tanner. Owned 219 acres in either Tincum or (more probably Bedminster Twp), whose household included 10 inhabitants in 1784; was a private second class in Capt McHenry's Company, 4th Batt. Penna. Militia, from Bedminster Twp on 6/12/1781. I have written to him saying that I am sure he was not an Overholt - that he was no doubt Frederick Aderhold. I have 27 different spellings for the original name of Oberholtzer [should be Oberholzer] - Barbara B Ford

In The History of Bedminster by Pauline Cassel from the Bucks County Genealogical Society was found the following information and that is what led me to believe the name change:

p 44 Bedminster Tax List of 1782-1783 Frederick Audischott 219 acres, tanyard

p 47 Local tax list for the year 1783 for Bedminster Twp, Frederick Auderhold 219 acres, tanyard Descendant [MC17] Daniel Biebyhouse was living near Frederick Atterhold.

Letter to Barbara B Ford on May 29, 1990: I found that the oldest member of the family was Christian Aterholt who immigrated in 1753 on the ship St Michel-Michel and settled in the Philadelphia area, Bucks County. On the subsequent manifest that approved the landing of these people, he was listed as Christian Oderhold. Often the names were written as the ship's officer understood the pronunciation, and since many passengers could not write, the name was spelled as he heard it. Because of the above "Oderhold" spelling, I also looked for it to connect those names with my Aderholds and found Overholtz, Oberholtzer, Overholt also. The Mormon Family History Center has films #192,632, 496,854, 020,539, and 172,929 that contain those names. However, I was not able to connect any of these to my Aderhold family. - Dorothy Ehrhardt, La Mesa CA

Summary: What is clear here is that the 219 acres was owned by a Frederick with the surnames of both Oderhold and Aterhold. What is also clear is that MC172 Frederick Artherholt had a child MC1725 Frederick Atherholt on March 8, 1775. This dating is clear proof that MM12 Frederick Overholt is NOT the same family as MC17. For MM12 had a child Jacob 4 months later.

Christian appears on the first existing tax list for Hempfield Twp, Lancaster County PA 1751. By 1756 he owned 250 acres (25 acres in grain, 4 horses, 1 mare, 6 cows & 10 sheep.) In 1758, 80 acres were cleared. In 1759 he had 200 acres with only 50 acres cleared, meaning 30 acres of cleared land had been sold with the 50 acres. In 1760 Christian owed the mill he used to build the 1769 house, and earn a living. A stone of the Oberholtzer mill on the Conestoga, 1 mile east of Petersburg read "Who Trusts in God has builded well in heaven and on earth. 1792" and immediately below, another stone "Jacob Oberholtzer Catherine Oberholtzer 1792"
